November is drawing to an end as I write this and I hope each and every one of you had a wonderful, juicy turkey filled Thanksgiving!

Right before Thanksgiving Rick and I went to Puerto Vallarta with about 30 people from Stonebriar Country Club. It was a free trip and we played a couple rounds of golf and ate and drank too much. It was a nice 4 day getaway! Here's a picture of the view at the Marriott Pool —beautiful. Rumor has it that Tim Koressel liked the swim up bar so much that when Stonebriar has a pool reinvention, we will be getting one, but don't tell Tim I told you this! (Let's just hope the pool does get a reinvention!)

Thanksgiving always allows me to take a look at all the things I am thankful for and this year my heart is filled with gratitude. We have so much and are so lucky. I am pledging in 2016 to do more for others that are not as blessed.

We went to my sister Janet's house again this year and she stuffed us full of good food. Here is a photo of me, Janet and my Mom and Dad (and Janet's dachshund, Oscar).

field he loves, SPORTS! I know they will both excel. Jimmy recently went back to work for a company he loves, so everyone is doing well and happy — such a blessing.

A friend once told me that as a parent, you are only as happy as your most unhappy child, which I believe as a Mother is true. We carry their unhappiness with us daily. I am so thankful that all are moving forward in their lives.

I am also thankful for those who protect our safety, the armed forces, and allow us to celebrate weddings, vacations and holidays as a family. Without their sacrifice, and that of their families, we would not have these freedoms..

An extra blessing is coming to us this Christmas. Bri's Ohio family (Mom, Dad, Sister, Brother and his fiancée) will be joining us at Christmas in Texas for the first time. I will be hosting them for the holiday and can't wait to show them Texas hospitality.

Lastly, I am thankful for all of YOU. My gratitude runs deep!

Recently, at 103 years young, Ebby Halliday passed away and her mantra she repeatedly regularly was to something good for someone every day. She also used to say that her middle name was gratitude. She never had children and lost her husband many years ago after not having many years with him, yet she was one of the most giving, grateful individuals I ever met. I realize she set a trail for all of us who follow her and I am doing my best to do a better job of being "Ebby-like,"

With gratitude for you!
Judi
