The Judi Wright Team

It's November and generally I start my newsletter reviewing all that I am thankful for. While there is plenty to still be thankful for, we lost our Dad on September 16th. I thought I had written my hardest newsletter in September when I wrote about losing our Mom. I didn't know yet what was coming. Dad didn't want to be here any more without our Mom and the love of his life for 61+ years. Losing Dad was a traumatic shock and surprise to us and we weren't prepared for it. We knew it would happen eventually, and he did have terminal cancer, but we had worked so hard to keep him alive, and keeping him OK and alive had become our main focus after losing Mom. We just didn't know how bad he was hurting and how little will he had to continue.

Since then we have been through the one month anniversary of both losses, Dad's first birthday without him (October 21st), Veterans Day (a day we generally went to see him at The Colony Veteran's Day Services) and soon we will go through our first Thanksgiving and Christmas without Mom or Dad. To say it has been difficult would be an understatement, but even in our darkest days I have found things I am thankful for.

More about this in a moment. Janet and I were supposed to be taking Dad to Cincinnati to see his 93rd year old sister, Alice. We went on the trip without him and visited our lovely Aunt Alice and

And the remainder of our family in that area. It was so nice to see everyone. Here's a picture of Janet and I with Aunt Alice! Doesn't Aunt Alice look good?

I am so thankful for so many things, so here goes:

The wonderful and loving family that we have built as a result of the strong base that my Mom and Dad started. Rick #1, Rick #2, Jeremy, Shane, Chase, Jimmy, Jenna, Jenna's spouse Adam, Jeremy's spouse Bri and Gunnar!

My Sister—without each other, I don't think we could make it through this. Love you Janet!

My Team—Monica, Erin, Cristy—thank you so much for everything!

I am so thankful for all of the wonderful customers that we have or have had in the past. So many of you have offered your love, support and guidance and it is so appreciated. Love you all!

I had one customer in Dallas who fired me when my Mom passed because he said my "eye wouldn't be on the ball" (by the way, his property is still not sold).

In almost ever other instance our wonderful customers went out of their way to be supportive and help me through this dark time. I can't thank you enough. Losing both parents in 6 weeks is hard and some of you allowed me to cry on the phone to you or on your shoulders when I couldn't hold it in. We're doing better daily and I've got my feet under me and my eye on the ball. We made it back on the Ebby Halliday Honor Roll for the 3rd Quarter and on the October Top Producer board for our Ebby Frisco office. I know my Mom and Dad would be proud of this .

In ending I wish each of you a wonderful Thanksgiving. Take time to enjoy life, your family and some good food. I know we will. We have so much to be thankful for — we are blessed.

Last note— I got to play golf with Dad one last time in July, here's my favorite photo from that day, I will remember it always.
